From Your Pastor

This coming Sunday is the beginning of Vacation Bible School. We begin right after worship with a covered dish lunch, and we invite the entire congregation (whether or not you, your children, grandchildren, or invitees are involved) to join us in fellowship. I also want you to be able to walk through the downstairs space and see the wonderful decorations. LaRhonda Bailey and her crew do an outstanding job every year (and a special thanks to Auburn First Methodist for donating their decorations) in preparation for this week.

And then, I also invite you to a community-wide event on Thursday night, June 21, beginning at 5:30. We hope the playground will be completed, and we can dedicate it in memory of Pete Gordon, but nevertheless we will have hamburgers and ice cream and celebrate the end of Vacation Bible School. More information will come in the next week, but please join us (and pray that the weather remains nice so that the playground can be finished) on that Thursday.

Grace and Peace,

RIX
