A beautiful evening on Sunday
at Hills and Dales with the Loyd Youth.

From Your Pastor

Your Loyd Session met this past Sunday. Our February meetings are usually Vision Planning along with our regular business, and at this meeting we met with our Congregational Consultant from the Presbytery, Cassandra Morrow, to discuss pastoral transition items. She went over the timeline for the interim process as well as answered question about pastoral searches, finances, and church assessments. As your Session, we also began discussing where we see this church in one year, three years, and five years. We talked about church member retention and growth during this transition and into the future.

The leadership of this church is amazing. They are full of energy and enthusiasm. They have vision and will be leading Loyd under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. I am so grateful to serve alongside them at this time, and I know the present and future of this church is in great hands.

If you have any questions, please call or stop by the office at any time.

Grace and Peace,

RIX
