John, a LaGrange native and the youngest of four children of Newt and Nell Hardie, grew up attending First Presbyterian Church. After playing baseball at the University of Alabama where he met his wife, Adrienne, John served 15 years as a campus minister with Athletes in Action. In 2006-2007, John served as a senior pastor of a Presbyterian congregation in Memphis. From 2008-2018, he served as a pastor of a new church community in Alpharetta. John holds a Master of Divinity and M.A.T.S. from Reformed Theological Seminary (1999), a Master in Sacred Theology from Yale Divinity School (2002) and a Ph.D. in Systematic Theology from Princeton Theological Seminary (2011). Following the death of his father and mother in May 2018, John began teaching and coaching at LaGrange High School. He and Adrienne have been married for 28 years and have 3 grown children.

...a 51 year old resident of LaGrange whose doctor recently diagnosed him with sleep apnea and recommended a C-Pap machine. $68 , along with funds from LPA, paid for what he needed.
