A Message from Tyler:

Busy! That is the only word that I can muster about the beginning of the month of July. I pray that everyone's 4th of July Independence Day celebration was as special as it was with my family.

On Saturday, July 8th, the Camp Viola counselors will go out and get the camp set up for the week to begin on Sunday, July 9th. This year is the first that we are going out a day early and we are being very intentional about using this time to prepare ourselves for what will be an amazing camp. We will be training together, packing welcome kits for the campers, and getting to spend a little bit of time together as a team.

Following Camp Viola, I'll be flying out to Graham, NC for the ordination service of my colleague and friend, (soon-to-be Rev.) Michael Sarvis. Have no fear, I'll be back in time for worship on Sunday morning, July 16th.

After a few days rest, we will be jumping on the bus to go to Middle School Montreat, July 19-22. I look forward to these next few weeks. As busy as they are, there is a great deal of ministry and opportunity that we will share with one another, with First Pres of LaGrange, with Camp Viola campers and their families, and with the community.

May God continue to bless the ministries of Loyd Presbyterian Church and may God bless each of you richly!

July Bible Study Update:

Janet and Jerry Fletcher will be offering a Bible Study during July on 1 Thessalonians. Paul's letter is particularly interesting as many scholars believe it is the first one that he wrote.

Their Bible Study will meet on Tuesday evenings, beginning July 11th, at 6:00pm. Janet asked that you bring your Bible and come sit around the table. You are welcome to share to your heart's content or say nothing at all. There is no Bible knowledge required, but scholars of the Bible are also welcome.
