An Update from Tyler:

In October, we will offer a series of Membership classes for people who are interested in joining our church. We'll discuss the history of the Presbyterian Church, talk about what makes us who we are as Presbyterians, and discuss where we personally might fit. I am extending the invitation to all those individuals who have been regularly attending and would like to become a member of this congregation. Additionally, I want to offer an invitation to any member who wants to join the class to ask questions or brush up on their knowledge of the Presbyterian church to join us as well. Unlike many cell phone companies who have amazing plans or deals for new members and forget their long-time customers, all will be welcome to this class. You will see announcements for this class going forward and I will personally speak with folks who have expressed an interest in this type of class. On October 1st, we will join together for our monthly breakfast at 9am and we will hold an opening session. I'm asking that all the Sunday School classes join us that day, so that we may all be together in that first class. I encourage you to come, and I'm already planning a fun and interactive session. Mark that date in your calendars!

In Christ,
Rev. Tyler Brock
