A Brief Word from Tyler:

This morning, I spent some time updating my paper calendar that I keep on my desk to sync it with my online calendar that I share with Froo. I know that it is a personal struggle to keep any calendar updated and avoid over-scheduling myself. I found that I had done that very thing with a date in the future; at one time, that date seemed so far off as to "not exist." Yet, I discovered that it is now in a month and I have multiple different places that I am supposed to be.

Following committee meetings and planning meetings that have come from the summer, I am filling in dates and realizing how much is happening here in the life of the church. Sometimes it might feel like it is simply worship, Sunday School, and little else. But if you are attending all of it, there's a wealth of programming that we are making happen.

I encourage you to mark your own calendar with events like the Fall Festival on Oct 25, the Antiquities Center dinner and tour on Dec 22, the weekly Wednesday nights @ Loyd until Nov 8, or the various happenings in between. It's a fun Fall and we're staying active!

In Christ,
Rev. Tyler Brock
