A Brief Message from Tyler

As we approach Thanksgiving, I pray for traveling mercies for those individuals who will be traveling and who have family who will be traveling. I hope that there won't be a great deal of stress that you must endure as you prepare meals, so that time spent with family can be enjoyed to the greatest extent. God has richly blessed us and for that, I want to return thanks to God for this church and for all those who call it home. In this season, I want you to know how thankful I am for each of you and the ways that we are community to one another.

Though the office may be closed, I want everyone to know and to ensure you that I am just a brief text or call away. Don't hesitate to reach out to me if you need to speak with me or if I can come visit with you.

Pastoral Visitation

During the most recent Session meeting, I was asked to share a report about visitations.

This morning, I went to see Mike Pauley in the hospital. Mike had a small procedure on Monday evening. The procedure was success, Mike's pain is gone, and he has been discharged home. The speed with which Mike got in to have this procedure done and his healing is miraculous and a testament to community and connection.

In Christ,
Rev. Tyler Brock
